

During the midwinter meeting, the Harry Meinardi proefschriftprijs 2015 has been awarded. This year the award went ex aequo to dr. Hilde Braakman and Dr. Martin Vaessen. The intensive cooperation between the two candidates took the jury that the theses assessed for a "golden combination" and has provided important insights into the development of cognitive disorders in children with epilepsy. The award was made available by the Epilepsiefonds.